

MANIFESTWORKSUK

UNLOCKING POTENTIAL, REDEFINING CAREERS

ManifestWorks is a UK charity dedicated to disrupting cycles of disadvantage by providing pathways to living-wage employment in the film industry in London. We empower people who have faced significant barriers, including homelessness, imprisonment, or time in local authority care, by giving them the skills, connections, and support needed for a sustainable new career. ManifestWorks has been successfully operating in Los Angeles since 2014.

Our 11-week free training programme provides hands-on, industry-informed training. By the end of the course participants will be job-ready runners, the most common entry point to a career in the film industry.

On successful graduation, we use our connections with the biggest production companies in London to match participants with paid freelance roles to gain immediate on-the-job experience and build professional reputations and networks.
